DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

"WARTIME LABOUR RELATIONS REGULATIONS ACT."

REGULATIONS made by the Minister of Labour for British Columbia, pursuant to the Wartime Labour Relations Regulations, P.C. 1003 of the Dominion, and the "Wartime Labour Relations Regulations Act" of the Province of British Columbia, being chapter 18 of the Statutes of 1944.

REGULATION No. 5.

1. (1.) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a.) "National Board" means the Wartime Labour Relations Board established by Dominion regulations;
- (b.) "Minister" means the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia;
- (c.) "Person" includes firm, corporation, trade-union, employees' organization or employers' organization.

(2.) Other words and expressions used in these regulations shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as the "Wartime Labour Relations Regulations Act," being chapter 18 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1944.

PROCEDURE.

Application for Certification.

2. An application for the certification of bargaining representatives shall be submitted in writing in duplicate upon the forms provided, and duly verified by statutory declaration.

3. The Minister shall make such inquiries and investigations into the matter in respect of which such application is made as he deems necessary for the proper disposal thereof.

Application for Intervention upon Failure to complete a Collective Agreement, pursuant to Section 11 of the Wartime Labour Relations Regulations (P.C. 1003).

4. (1.) An application for intervention upon failure to complete a collective agreement may be made by letter or telegram to the Registrar, Wartime Labour Relations Regulations (B.C.), Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C. It is preferred that all such applications be made in duplicate upon the forms provided.

(2.) Such application should set forth the name(s) of the applicant(s), the address to which further communications from the Department are to be sent, the name of the employees' organization (or trade-union) involved; the name(s) and address(es) of the employer(s) involved; the nature of the industry or business; the number of employees directly involved; and the difficulties which have been encountered in the endeavour to negotiate a collective agreement. A copy of the proposed agreement should be enclosed.

(3.) Where the applicant employer is an individual the application must be signed by the employer or his general manager. Where the applicant is a company or firm the application must be signed by the president, secretary, general manager, or other executive officer.

(4.) Where applicants are bargaining representatives they must have been previously certified under the regulations.

(5.) Upon receipt of the application for intervention the Minister may request such additional information as may be necessary from the applicant and from other interested persons.

Application for the Establishment of an Appropriate Procedure for the Consideration and Settlement of Disputes, pursuant to Section 18 (2) of the Wartime Labour Relations Regulations (P.C. 1003).

5. (1.) An application for the establishment by the Minister of an appropriate procedure for the consideration and settlement of disputes concerning the interpretation or violation of a collective agreement, pursuant to section 18 (2) of the regulations, may be made by letter or telegram to the Registrar, Wartime Labour Relations Regulations (B.C.), Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C.

(2.) Such application should set forth the names and addresses of the persons involved; the date of the execution of the collective agreement and the date of its termination; a statement that it contains no appropriate procedure for the consideration and settlement of disputes concerning its interpretation or violation. If the application claims the procedure contained in the agreement is inappropriate, the reasons for such a claim must be given. A copy of the collective agreement involved must be filed with the application.

(3.) Upon receipt of the application for the establishment of an appropriate procedure the Minister may request such additional information as may be necessary from the applicant and from other interested persons.

Applications for Leave to institute Prosecutions under the Wartime Labour Relations Regulations.

6. (1.) An application for leave to institute a prosecution under the regulations may be made by letter or by telegram to the Registrar, Wartime Labour Relations Regulations (B.C.), Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C.

(2.) Such application shall specify the provision of the regulations alleged to have been violated, and shall contain in detail the material facts regarding such violation.

(3.) Upon receipt of an application for leave to institute a prosecution the Minister may request such additional information as may be necessary from the applicant and from other interested persons, and may instruct an officer to investigate such application and report thereon to him.

APPEALS.

7. (1.) Any persons directly affected by any decision or order of the Minister, and seeking appeal to the National Board, should file an application with the Minister seeking leave to appeal, setting forth:—

- (a.) Details of the matter to which exception is taken; and (b.) The reasons for taking such exception.

 (2.) The time-limits for such appeals is the time set forth in the regulations of the War-time Labour Relations Board (National) made the 7th day of June, 1944, as amended July 19th, 1944, or as they may be from time to time amended.

GENERAL.

8. The Minister may from time to time amend these regulations.

Dated this 8th day of August, 1944.

GEO. S. PEARSON,
Minister of Labour for British Columbia.
 3432-au17

EDUCATION.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
 VICTORIA, B.C., August 15th, 1944.

DEPARTMENT OF WORKS.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

HOME FOR THE AGED, ESSONDALE.

SEALED TENDERS, endorsed "Tender for 100-Bed Hospital, Home for the Aged, Essondale," will be received by the Minister of Public Works for the erection and completion of a 100-bed hospital at the Home for the Aged, Essondale.

Plans, specifications, contract, and forms of tender may be seen on and after the 18th day of August, 1944, and further information obtained at the Department of Public Works, Parliament Buildings, and at the offices of the Government Agents at Vancouver and New Westminster.

Copies of plans, specifications, etc., can be obtained from the Department on payment of a deposit of twenty-five dollars ($25), which will be refunded on return of the plans, etc., in good condition.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for the sum of seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000), which shall be forfeited if the party tendering decline to enter into contract when called upon to do so.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied, signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelope furnished.

Tenders must be in the hands of the Minister at or before 12 noon of Friday, the 8th day of September, 1944, and will be opened in public at 12 o'clock noon on that day in the Parliament Buildings.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
